Official Form 101Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy*02/20

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together--called a joint case--and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

04/19

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- ☐ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)

This sets out our agreement regarding this firm's representation of you in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case not involving issues and/or debts related to a current or prior business to be filed in Austin, Texas. We generally charge a "flat fee" for this type of representation for basic agreed upon services. This fee includes attorney and legal assistant time and routine out of pocket expenses (long distance, copies, postage, faxes).

Total Attorney Fees: $2,125.00

Total Attorney Fees Paid: $1,125.00

Balance due : $1,000.00

The total cost for services performed prior to filing your case will be $1500, comprised of $1,125 in attorney fees, plus the filing fee of $335 and the debt counseling/personal financial management class fee of $40, plus any additional amounts set out below. If you choose to do the class over the telephone rather than online, the cost is $60 and your total pre-filing fee will be increased to $1520. A total retainer of $1500 must be paid prior to filing your case and is payable as follows: A typical case takes three appointments at our office prior to filing the case. The first is your free initial consultation. The second is the review of your completed homework package, at which a payment of $750.00 is due. The third is the signing appointment at which another payment of $750.00 is due. If you want us to begin taking creditor calls prior to filing, we require a payment of $350, which will be credited to the $1500 retainer. The fee for services to be performed after filing is $1,000 and is to be paid in monthly payments of $200 beginning on the 15th day of the each month after your case is filed.

The services included in the flat fee for a basic consumer Chapter 7 are:

In the event that additional fees are charged, those fees will be required to be paid either pre-filing or post-filing, as designated above, unless otherwise agreed.

Our agreement to represent you does not include filing or defending adversary proceedings. In the event an adversary proceeding is filed against you, we will negotiate our representation and fee at that time. (An adversary would generally be a dispute regarding the dischargeability of a particular debt.) Our agreement to represent you in a bankruptcy case also does not constitute an agreement to initiate or defend any litigation on your behalf, whether in bankruptcy court or state court. We do not defend state court collection lawsuits.

Due to reporting errors by creditors and credit reporting agencies, your credit report after filing may not accurately reflect the status of your debts after your bankruptcy discharge. It is the responsibility of your individual creditors to report the status of your debts properly. We cannot guarantee that your creditors will do so. Although we can usually help you correct these problems, we do charge a fee for that service which is not included in the fee for the Chapter 7.

We will provide you with a copy of all of the documents which we file on your behalf in your case at the time they are filed. At the time your discharge is entered, the Court will mail you a copy of the discharge order. These documents are very important. They are the documents a home lender will typically require when you apply for a home loan. Once your case is closed, we send your file to offsite storage. If you request copies of these documents after we send your file offsite, we charge a $75 fee for retrieval of these documents. In addition, our records are destroyed after 5 years and we may not be able to retrieve copies after that time.

By executing this agreement, you are representing to us that you will pay the agreed upon fee in the agreed upon installments. By executing this agreement you agree that if you fail to make the agreed upon payments of fees, we may cease representation of you immediately and that you will not oppose a motion to withdraw as your attorneys.

This agreement is not binding until it is signed by both parties and the full retainer is paid. Our offer to represent you expires if you have not executed this engagement letter and paid at least $700 within 90 days after the date of your consultation. If your case is not filed within 6 months of execution of this agreement, our agreement to represent you expires and we will keep any monies received for services rendered.

The source of compensation was the Debtor(s). The source of compensation to be paid is the Debtor(s). I have not agreed to share the above described compensation with any other person, unless this client(s) was referred to us by the Lawyer Referral Service, in which case we have agreed to a 15% referral fee for all fees received over $400.00.
